Meet the Family

Track 0.01

Woman: Hello, what's your name?
Jack: Hello. My name's Jack.
Woman: J-A-C-K?
Jack: Yes, that's right. Jack Brown.
Woman: Ah, Brown is your family name.
B-R-O-W-N? The same as the colour?
Jack: Haha. Yes.
Woman: And how old are you?
Jack: I'm eight.
Woman: Good, now, where do you live, Jack?
Jack: My address is … er … number 7 …
Woman: OK, 7.
Jack: Beach Street.
Woman: B-E-A-C-H?
Jack: Yes.
Woman: Good, and do you live in the town of Bath?
Jack: Bath, yes, B-A-T-H.
Woman: Thank you very much. That's great.
Jack: Thanks. Bye.
Woman: Bye.

Cameron: Good morning, everyone.
Rocky: Shh! Hi, Cameron. The farm cat's got some babies. Come and look at her kittens.
Henrietta: They're here. I think they're sleeping. They're beautiful.
2
Rocky: Are they sleeping, Mum?
Henrietta: No, they aren't sleeping. I think they're awake.
Cameron: That's right. They can't open their eyes because they're very young.
3
Harry: She's washing that kitten's face. The kitten's very pretty.
Shelly: I'm pretty too … and my face isn't dirty.
Rocky: Yes, Shelly, but come with me.
4
Rocky: Look! There are three puppies. They're all happy.
Harry: The one with the short tail's playing with a ball.
Cameron: It's playing with my ball!

Gracie: Is that big puppy with the white ear drinking water?

Shelly: No, it isn't. It's looking at its face ... because it's a pretty puppy!

6

Harry: Look at that fat puppy. What's it eating?

Shelly: It's naughty! It's eating Grandpa's old red sock.

Gracie: Grandpa's old red sock?! That's my lunch!

Track 1.03

1

Girl: Mum, look at that beautiful kitten.

Mum: Which one? The grey one?

Girl: No, not the grey one, the black-and-white one.

Mum: Ah, yes. It's sleeping with its mother.

Girl: No, the other black-and-white one – it's drinking milk.

2

Dad: Lunch is on the table. Is Peter washing his hands?

Girl: I don't know. I think he's in the hall.

Dad: Oh, that's good, he's taking off his shoes.

Girl: Hmm. He can't come in with dirty shoes.

3

Mum: Charlie, is this your blue toothbrush?

Charlie: No, Mum. My toothbrush hasn't got toothpaste on it.

Mum: Ah. Is it the red one, then?

Charlie: No, that's Vicky's. My toothbrush is green.

4

Dad: Good morning, Daisy.
Would you like bread and milk for breakfast today?

Daisy: Hmm, not today, thank you.
Can I have some chocolate, please?

Dad: Ah, how about some chocolate milk?

Daisy: Hmm. OK. Chocolate milk and a banana, please.

Track 1.04

Jack wakes up at seven o'clock every day.

He gets up and has a shower.

Then he gets dressed and has breakfast with his little brother.

He cleans his teeth and goes to school at eight o'clock.

He goes to school in the car with his dad.

Jack loves school.

He has lunch at one o'clock.

School finishes at four o'clock.

Jack goes home and he has dinner at five o'clock.

Track 1.05

Emma: Look, Dad. Everyone's here for Lucy's party.

Dad: Is that girl Sara?

Emma: Where?

Dad: She's sitting by the lake.

Emma: Yes, that's Sara. She likes birthday parties!

Emma: That's Abdul, Dad.

Dad: Which one?

Emma: He's next to the tractor.

Dad: Is he the one wearing a hat?

Emma: That's right!

Dad: Look at that girl!

Emma: What's she doing?

Dad: She's taking a photo. Can you see her?

Emma: Oh, yes. She's standing in front of Lucy. That's Lily.

Emma: There's my friend John!

Dad: Where?

Emma: He's talking to Lucy.

Dad: Is he wearing sunglasses?

Emma: Yes, that's John!

Dad: Is that boy in Lucy's class?

Emma: Which boy?

Dad: He's standing in front of the big tree. He's next to Tom, the dog.

Emma: Oh, yes. His name's Nick.

Dad: I think he likes Tom.

Emma: Me too!

Zak: I'm Zak.

Teacher: Now let's talk about school, Zak.

Zak: OK.

Teacher: How do you go to school in the morning?

Zak: I walk.

Teacher: Great.

Teacher: What do you like doing at school?

Zak: Erm …

Teacher: Do you like reading?

Zak: Yes, but I really like drawing.

Teacher: Good! And what time does school finish?

Zak: Two o'clock.

Teacher: Tell me about your school's playground, Zak.

Zak: It's big. There's a tree and grass.

1

Jenny: Friday afternoon and we're home from school! Let's put Fred here on the table.

Jim: Cameron can get on the table! Let's put him up there on the shelf.

2

Cameron: Jim and Jenny have got a new pet … but only for the weekend. It's the school fish, but it needs food on Saturdays and Sundays too.

3

Henrietta: How often do they feed it?

Cameron: Once a day, in the evening.

Gracie: Hmm, they feed us twice a day: In the morning and the evening.

4

Shelly: How often does this fish wash its face?

Cameron: It never washes its face, Shelly. It …

Gracie: Fish live in water, Shelly. They're always in water.

5

Harry: Hmm. Fish are always in water. Can they talk?

Rocky: Birds often talk. Cameron, does the fish ever talk?

Cameron: I don't know. No, I don't think so.

6

Cameron: So, fish. Do you ever talk?

Fred Fish: Yes, I do … I sometimes talk, but I never talk to cats.

Track 2.03

When are the football matches?

Lisa: Guess what, Dad! I'm on the school football team!

Dad: That's great, Lisa. How often do you play?

Lisa: Well, we practise on Wednesdays and Mondays after school.

Dad: And the football matches?

Lisa: On Saturdays.

Dad: Fantastic.

What does the boy want to do?

Girl: Do you want to go swimming after school?
Boy: No, thanks. I can't swim, but I've got a new bicycle.
Girl: Great, I've got one too.
Boy: Let's go to the park and ride our bikes.
Girl: OK.

4

Who's the girl's sports teacher?

Girl: Look, there's my sports teacher.
Man: The woman wearing the red T-shirt?
Girl: Yes. She's very tall.
Man: Yes. Is she nice?
Girl: She's really nice.

5

Where are the children?

Girl: Ah! The rabbits are really cute.
Boy: Yeah, but let's go and see the cows over there.
Girl: Why are the sheep running about?
Boy: Because the dog's moving them.
Girl: Oh, he's a farm dog. He's really intelligent.
Boy: Yes, he is!

6

What's the boy looking for?

Mum: Jack! Where are you?
Jack: I'm upstairs.
Mum: What are you doing? It's eight o'clock!
Jack: I'm looking for my notebook!
Mum: It's in your backpack with your books and pens.
Jack: No, it isn't.
Mum: OK, but hurry up!

Harry: Rocky! What are you doing?

Rocky: I'm calling Gracie. She likes studying. She can be a doctor.

5

Gracie: Are you calling me? What do you want?

Rocky: Put these on, Gracie. You're our doctor.

Henrietta: Remember – doctors help other people.

6

Gracie: Harry! I'm a doctor! I must look at your eye. I'm … helping … you.

Harry: No, you aren't. It's my costume. I'm a pirate. Please stop! Ow!

Shelly: Oh, Jim and Jenny's uncle's taller than their dad, but Mr Friendly's older than him.

3

Harry: Oh, Jim and Jenny's baby cousin! She's smaller and younger than them.

Rocky: Yes. She's a pretty baby.

Shelly: I'm bigger than my cousin, but she's got curlier hair than me.

4

Shelly: I've got a prettier face than my cousin and … I'm fatter than her.

Gracie: Well! My ears are longer than your ears.

5

Shelly: My feet are smaller and cleaner than your feet!

Gracie: Well, I'm thinner than you, Shelly! And … I'm cleverer than all of you!

Henrietta: Stop! Prettier, uglier, fatter, thinner, better, worse. This is silly! We must all be nicer to everyone.

Shelly: You're right. Sorry, Gracie.

Gracie: Yes. Sorry, everyone.

Track 4.04

Jane: Hello, Jack. What are you doing today?

Jack: Hi, Jane. I'm helping my family. They're all doing different things. At the moment my aunt's outside in the garden picking up leaves.

Jane: Are you outside in the garden with her?

Jack: I'm outside, but I'm not in the garden.

Jane: What are you doing?

Jack: I'm watching my uncle. He's up on the roof. He's painting it.

Jane: Oh. Are you at your uncle's house?

Jack: No, I'm at my grandparents' house. We're all helping them.

Jane: Really? Where are they?

Jack: They're cleaning the balcony.

Jane: Are your parents with you?

Jack: Yes, they are, but they're inside. They're downstairs in the basement.

Jane: What are they doing?

Jack: They're putting some old things into boxes. I must go because I want to help them. I like helping my family.

Track 4.05

Teacher: Is that your brother? I remember he was in my class at school too.

Lily: Yes, that's John. He lives in the city centre now. In a flat with some friends.

Teacher: That looks nice.

Can you see the word 'brother'? This is an example. Listen and write the person in the boxes.

1

Teacher: Does your uncle live in the city too?

Lily: He did, but now he lives in a much quieter place. He's got a small house in the mountains. You can see them from the window.

Teacher: What a beautiful place!

Lily: Yes, it's really lovely.

2

Teacher: What about your cousin? She isn't at our school now.

Lily: That's right. Her dad has a job in another country, and they've got a big flat near the beach there.

Teacher: That looks lovely.

Lily: It is lovely, and my cousin likes her new school there too. We went to see them last month.

Teacher: Is that the house in the picture there?

Lily: Yes, that's right, it's big and old.

4

Teacher: Does your aunt live in town now?

Lily: No, she doesn't. She had a boat on the river here, but it was very cold. She lives near water because she loves fishing, but she's got a house now.

Teacher: Is that near the sea?

Lily: No, it's next to a small lake. It's near here.

5

Teacher: Where would you like to live?

Lily: I love my grandmother's house. It's small but it's lovely. And she's got a garden with lots and lots of flowers and some trees.

Teacher: Is it here in town?

Lily: No, it's in a small village near here. There are only six other houses there and one small shop.

Cameron: The bear's the biggest, but the kangaroo's got the longest tail.

3

Harry: What? Is its tail longer than mine?

Cameron: Yes, I think so, Harry.

Rocky: Hmm, so, which is the best animal?

4

Shelly: Well, I don't know which one's the best, but the parrot's the prettiest.

Harry: In this barn, Shelly, you're the prettiest.

Dad: She makes very good soup.

Julia: And she wants us to go to a shop and get some bread. Is that OK?

Dad: Yes, no problem.

4

Julia: It's very cold today and there's snow! This weather is the best!

Dad: Really? I think the weather was better yesterday.

Julia: But it was cloudy!

Dad: I know. Cloudy weather is what I like.

Julia: OK, Dad.

5

Julia: There's a lake near Grandma and Grandpa's house, isn't there?

Dad: Yes, they like walking there.

Julia: What's the lake called?

Dad: It's Sage Lake. That's S-A-G-E.

Julia: Can we go to Sage Lake today?

Dad: Not today. It's too snowy.

Now listen again.

Track 6.05

Boy: Grandma, look at this photo of my friends at the lake.

Grandma: Oh, yes – it's really nice. Which friends were you with?

Boy: Well, that's Paul. Can you see him? He's wearing a coat.

Grandma: Is he fishing?

Boy: Yes, he is. He wants to catch something for lunch!

Can you see the line? This is an example. Now you listen and draw lines.

1

Grandma: That boy's wearing shorts! Isn't he cold?

Boy: You're right! He's Matt.

Grandma: And he's roller skating too!

Boy: Yes, he loves doing that.

2

Grandma: Is that your friend's mother?

Boy: Where?

Grandma: She's standing next to those rocks.

Boy: Do you mean the woman with straight hair?

Grandma: Yes.

Boy: That's Ann. She's Paul's big sister.

3

Grandma: That's Ben, isn't it? The man with the towel, I mean.

Boy: That's right.

Grandma: He's got a big moustache!

Boy: Yes, I know! He's walking towards the lake because he wants to go swimming.

Grandma: Really? But it looks very cold!

4

Boy: Do you know my friend's grandmother?

Grandma: No, I don't. Is she in the photo?

Boy: Yes. Look, she's putting a plate of burgers on the table.

Grandma: Now I can see her. What's she called?

Boy: Her name's Julia.

Grandma: There was lots of food. Were you hungry?

Boy: Yes, we were … and we ate it all!

5

Grandma: What about that woman?

Boy: Which one?

Grandma: She's putting on her scarf.

Boy: Her long, pink one? That's because she doesn't like windy weather. Her name's Kim.

Cameron: The family drove to the beach. We were there for a week.

Harry: What an adventure!

Rocky: Adventure, hmm … we came to the farm last year. That was the longest trip of our lives.

3

Henrietta: Yes, we rode in Farmer Friendly's lorry. I sat in the back and slept.

Rocky: I didn't sleep. It was fantastic. I stood and watched the beautiful countryside.

4

Gracie: Shall I tell you about my adventure? I lost my cousin in the forest.

Harry: You didn't lose her! She hid behind a tree …

Cameron: Farmer Friendly brought you home. I saw you!

5

Henrietta: Gracie! You told us a different story!

Rocky: Ours was a very long trip. Farmer Friendly stopped and fed us nice vegetables when we were hungry.

6

Harry: Farmer Friendly's a good man. He gave me his favourite green hat.

Shelly: He didn't give you the hat. You took it from the garden!

Track 8.04

Where is Peter going with his mother?

Mum: Come on, Peter. We're going out now.

Peter: To the river? I love fishing there.

Mum: I thought we could walk in the forest and there are lots of things to see. So, we're doing that today.

Peter: Oh, but that's boring. What about the lake? We can go on the boats there.

Mum: No, we did that last week, but we can go there again next weekend.

Can you see the tick? Now you listen and tick the box.

1

Which girl is Mr Ball's granddaughter?

Boy: Which girl is your granddaughter, Mr Ball?

Mr Ball: She's coming out of the bus station now. Can you see her?

Boy: Is she holding a map?

Mr Ball: No, that's her cousin. My granddaughter's holding her ticket.

Boy: Oh, yes, there she is!

2

Which sweater does Sam want to wear for the party?

Sam: I'd like to put on my favourite party sweater … you know … the one with the penguin on it.

Mum: Sorry, Sam. It's very small for you now! How about this one, with a panda on it?

Sam: All right. But Bill's sweater is nicer.

Mum: What's he got on his sweater?

Sam: A big whale!

Mum: Well, I think yours is really nice too!

3

Where was Zoe on Monday?

Zoe: Sorry I wasn't at school on Monday, Miss Hall.

Miss Hall: Were you at the hospital, Zoe?

Zoe: Yes. I cut my leg at the swimming pool.

Miss Hall: Oh, dear! Are you all right now?

Zoe: Yes, thanks … but this afternoon I have to go to the doctor's.

Miss Hall: That's fine. Thank you for telling me.

4

What is Fred doing now?

Man: Is Fred walking to the bus stop?

Woman: No, he isn't! Because he was asleep at eight o'clock!

Man: Oh, no! How's he going to school then? By bike?

Woman: Mrs Short's taking him and Mary in the car.

Man: Oh, that's good. Fred's lessons start at nine o'clock.

5

Which is the new building in the city?

Girl: Mum, did you see the new building in the city?

Mum: Do you mean the supermarket? The one opposite the library?

Girl: Yes! It's huge! I think it's bigger than the hospital!

Mum: Really? Well … I need to get some things. Let's go there today.

Girl: OK, Mum!

1

Mr Friendly: We need to talk to you. We want to work for Diversicus.

Grandma: Oh, the circus! Oh, I don't know …

Grandpa: I'm not surprised. I think your mother's more surprised than me.

2

Cameron: Listen to this, the family want to be in Diversicus, the circus!

Rocky: The circus is more exciting than the farm!

Henrietta: Farmer Friendly!Our Farmer Friendly … in the circus?

3

Cameron: No … only Mr and Mrs Friendly … and there's a circus school for the children.

Gracie: Jumping and catching are dangerous!

Shelly: But Mr Friendly's a cook and Mrs Friendly writes and plays music.

4

Shelly: The beautiful costumes … circus clothes are more beautiful than these.

Rocky: Yes, they are! I want to be in a circus, too! Shelly, get the best clothes. Harry, put on your hat. Let's make better costumes!

5

Gracie: Welcome to the Friendly Circus. Today we've got …

Shelly: Shall I sing for everyone?

Rocky: We've got … the brilliant, the brave Cameron Cat! He isn't afraid! Watch this!

6

Gracie: And now, more difficult, more exciting and more dangerous than Diversicus, we've got Rocky and Harry!

Rocky: Look at us, Mum! We're in the Friendly circus! I'm riding Harry. I'm not frightened!

Henrietta: I am! I can't look!

Track 9.04

1

Woman: Did you enjoy your school trip last week, Jack?

Jack: Oh, yes – it was the most exciting journey ever.

Woman: Did you fly?

Jack: No, we went by train.

2

Woman: Oh, yes. I like travelling by train too. Where did you go?

Jack: We went to the Bluegrass Mountains.

Woman: Bluegrass Mountains? Is that B-L-U-E-G-R-A-S-S?

Jack: Yes, that's right. Look, I can show them to you on the map.

Woman: Oh. They aren't near here.

3

Jack: No, they aren't. We had to catch the train at eight o'clock in the morning and we got off at four o'clock in the afternoon.

Woman: Eight hours! What did you do on the train?

Jack: Well, I looked at the countryside out of the window and listened to music, but a lot of my friends slept because they were tired.

Woman: How many children went on the trip?

Jack: There were 28 of us.

4

Woman: What did you see from the window?

Jack: The most beautiful thing was a rainbow above a forest. It was fantastic.

Woman: Hmm. Did you see any animals in the forest?

Jack: Yes, I did. I was really surprised to see a big, grey rabbit in the grass. It was near the train.

5

Woman: Were you hungry on the train?

Jack: No, I wasn't. We all had a picnic lunch. We brought our food from home.

Woman: What did you eat?

Jack: My dad made me a big chicken sandwich. I gave part of it to my friend because it was so big.

6

Woman: Oh, that's nice. Did your friend give you any food?

Jack: No, he didn't, but I was really thirsty and he gave me some fruit juice.

Woman: So, what did he drink?

Jack: He drank fruit juice too. He had two bottles.

Woman: What kind of juice was it?

Jack: It was my favourite. It was pineapple. It was great!

What's the book about?

Girl: This book's great.

Boy: What's it about?

Girl: It's about Africa.

Boy: What – elephants and lions?

Girl: No. It's a story about giraffes.

Whose party is it?

Woman: Whose party are you going to?

Boy: Diana's.

Woman: Is Diana the girl with short, blonde hair?

Boy: No, she's the girl with long, red hair.

3

Where's the picnic?

Man: There's a school picnic today.

Boy: Yes, it's in the school playground, I think.

Girl: No, it isn't.

Man: Where is it then?

Girl: It's in the forest behind the school.

4

Which sweater does Sam want to wear for the party?

Boy: I'd like to put on my favourite party sweater … you know … the one with the penguin on it.

Review Units 7–9

Track 9.06

I had an exciting day yesterday!

First, I went to the train station to buy a ticket for my trip next week.

I went to the library and chose a book about travelling the world.

I went to a café to buy some lunch because I was hungry.

I ate a bowl of pasta and drank a glass of orange juice.

I looked at a map to find my friend's house. I didn't get lost!

Sally's dad took us to the funfair.

The rides were more exciting than last year!

We bought a bottle of water because we were thirsty.

I sent a text to my dad and he drove us home.

I slept in the car because I was tired!
